BRYAN IS ONE

The Appellate Division ruled yesterday that the terms of the Sheriff, the County Clerk, the Register and the District Attorney of Bronx County expire at the end of the present year and that there must be an election to fill these offices this year, instead of in 1917, as has been believed.

Under the law creating Bronx County these officials were elected to four year terms, which would not expire until December 31, 1917. The state constitution, according to the Appellate Division, provides for terms of three years. No primaries or designations have been made, and, with the further delay that will be occasioned by appeal to the Court of Appeals, it will be impossible for the political parties to make the necessary designations in time for the approaching election.

John D. Moore, identified with the Irish movement, said that it did not lie in the mouth of Woodrow Wilson to accuse Jeremiah O'Leary of disloyalty to America.

"While Mr. Wilson's ancestors were preaching and practising Southern slavery Mr. O'Leary's ancestors were feeing from Ireland to escape British slavery," he said.

Party Failed to Take Stand.

The Democratic party this fall will lose the aid of members of the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association because, at the convention in Trenton on Tuesday, no equal suffrage plank was inserted in the platform.

Mrs. E. F. Feickert, president of the association, said yesterday:

"The immediate result of the action of the Democratic convention will be the withdrawal of prominent New Jersey women from active participation in the Democratic campaign. Two such women, who were part of our deputation, Mrs. Philip McKim Garrison, of Liewellyn Park, and Mrs. James Billington, of Jersey City, stated at the close of the convention that they would at once drop the work they had been planning to do for the Democratic candidates."
